This seminar meets the continuing professional education program requirements of the Washington State Board of Accountancy.

The Filipino American Association of Certified Public Accountants (FAACPA) is committed to professional growth and excellence, service to the community, and collaboration with other professionals, the organization provides continuing education and scholarship programs.

In 2006, FAACPA established its affiliate the FAACPA Educational Fund, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, whose purpose is to raise funds and provide scholarships to students majoring in accounting as well as to accounting graduates working to attain their CPA license. In six of the past seven years, our top scholarship awardees had won the AICPA accounting first prize award of $5,000.

VISION

To be leaders of the accounting profession providing opportunities for our members as our continued commitment to the accounting profession and to society.

MISSION

To care for and strengthen the interests and needs of members and develop their knowledge, skills and abilities and attitude for them to attain their mission in life, thus help preserve and promote the status of the accounting profession.

FAACPA's objectives:

- To promote professional growth and development of members.
- To assist members in career opportunities and advancement.
- To encourage and aid members in the attainment of CPA certification in Washington.
- To develop cordial relation among members of the accounting profession and members of other professional organization.
